

Asian Pacific American Heritage Month
Diverse Leadership + Expanding Opportunity:
An Imperative for America

Co-Sponsored by Asian Pacific American Advisory Committee (APAAC)
And
Women's Advisory Committee (WAC)

“PANEL PRESENTATION FEATURING NEWSCAST REPORTERS”

Tuesday, May 20, 2014
10:00 - 11:30 AM
Building 8 Auditorium

Panel Members

Kathy Park
ABC7/WJLZ-TV

Linh Bui
CBS13/WJZ-TV

Ms. Kathy Park is a reporter and weekend morning anchor for ABC 7/WJLZ-TV and News Channel 8. From tornadoes to NASCAR events at Bristol Motor Speedway, she covered it all as a Southwest Virginia beat reporter. She is a first generation Korean-American and has studied abroad in Seoul. She is the DC-chapter president of the Asian American Journalists Association.

Ms. Linh Bui is a reporter for CBS 13/WJZ-TV. She joined WJZ Eyewitness News in July 2013 as a reporter/weekend anchor. She is also the noon anchor with Don Scott on Wednesdays-Fridays. Before moving to Baltimore, she was the morning anchor for WZVN in sunny Fort Myers, Fla. She was there for three years and covered major stories like the Deepwater Horizon oil spill and its impacts on tourism. She started her career in Macon, Ga., where she was a reporter/weekend anchor for WXGA. She is a member of the Asian American Journalists Association.

Light refreshments will be served.

If you would like any additional information about this event, please contact the GSFC Asian American and Pacific Islander Program Manager (Gerald Tiqui) at either (301) 286-9461 or gerald.j.tiqui@nasa.gov.

If you would like to request an accommodation, i.e. sign language interpreter, assistive listening device, captioning service, or accessible seating for any of the listed events, please contact the GSFC Disability Program Manager (Denna Lambert) at either (301) 286-0844 or denna.s.lambert@nasa.gov.